FROM THE BOARD ROOM MICK O'NEILL MBE

Welcome to Oldham RLFC.

Wow, what a fantastic weekend in Cornwall! Yeah, it's a bit of a trek, but it was so worth it to see such a massive turnout from all the fans. You guys are amazing!

Great to see Jake and Steve working hard to get George Flanagan and Ben Blackmore in from Bulls – it was awesome to see them play the last couple of games and I believe they certainly strengthen the squad.

I also want to give a shoutout to the Pride event happening today. These events are crucial for making positive changes and opening up minds. Wishing them all the best – let's keep pushing for progress!

I'm especially proud that India Willoughby is our patron. She's not just a trailblazer but also such a wonderful person to chat with. We're so lucky to have her on board.

Oh, and make sure to support Matt Bailey's testimonial – there are some exciting events lined up.

Keep your eyes on social media for all the updates. You won't want to miss out!

This season has been nothing short of thrilling with an amazing record, especially on the road.

The boys are really stepping up and doing us proud. Every player who has worn the shirt this year has been outstanding.

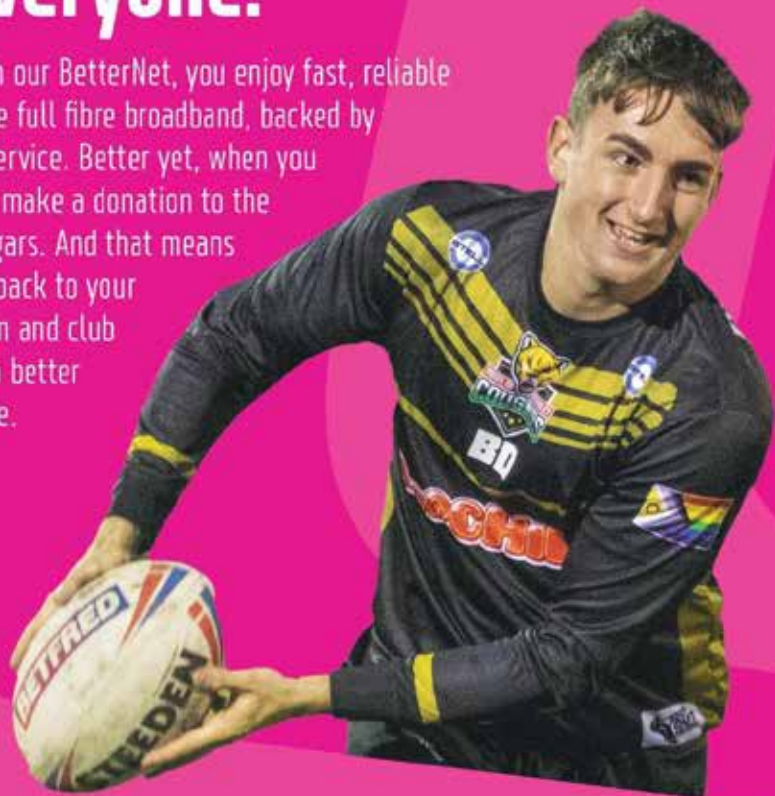

Let's keep the cheers, clappers and support coming strong!

Mick O'Neill

CLUB UPDATE WITH RYAN & KAUE

Welcome to Cougar Park for our special game today marking the Pride movement for LGBTQ+ rights and equality.

We are always grateful for the support our fans give to us on special events like this. It matters a lot to both of us for obvious reasons, and to have the support of our Cougar family means an awful lot.

I hope you all had an opportunity to watch the special dance video we produced to mark Pride. Our huge thanks to the players and staff who took part. They were all great sports for doing so, and shows what true decent people they are. It can't be easy for tough rugby players to dance around for a video, but they did so with gusto.

The new stand is moving along. It has been frustratingly slow progress, but we are looking at only a matter of weeks now until we should start to see tangible things happening. Steve Watkinson (Cougars COO) has been working super hard on moving the project along, and using some out-of-the-box thinking to get as much deliverables as possible within the budget we have. We can't wait to see the end result.

It's great to be at home for the first time in 6 weeks. Not only to enjoy the fun day that is a Cougar home match, but also for revenues. That is the tough thing about a small league in that 6 weeks without a home game means 6 weeks of little if any revenue. We need to ensure any restructures for the leagues must ensure clubs have regular home matches.

We're delighted to have special guests today in our patron India Willoughby, James Child (ex SL referee), Eden Heath (a successful podcaster), as well as representatives from the RFL inclusion board.

Last week we attended the Attitude Pride awards in London. It was a very fancy event with lots of famous faces. It was really thrilling to talk to stars of the screen who knew about Keighley Cougars, and are keen to come to games. I won't reveal names yet, but we will be seeing some famous new fans at Cougar Park.

The message from today: If you can be anything in life, choose to be kind.

Happy Pride

Ryan & Kaue

COACH'S CORNER

HEAD COACH MATT FOSTER

Good afternoon and welcome to today's game against a high flying Rochdale as our 2024 season continues into July.

I would like to welcome Gary Thornton and his players and staff to Cougar Park for what promises to be an entertaining game of rugby league. Rochdale have been scoring some points of late and really know how to attack so we will need to be at our best today.

We havnt had a home game since Oldham at the end of May so the boys are very much looking forward to this game, especially after 3 consecutive away games amassing over 1250 miles travelled.

Since we last spoke we have had Max Lambourne make a welcome debut and also seen the arrival of Ben Blackmore who adds great punch with his carries and he is also a very vocal player both on and off the pitch and fits in well with the squad.

I also welcome the news when I heard George Flanagan was signing permanent for our great club. In the last couple of away games we have been very proud of our defen sive efforts, with a 0 against Cornwall and 2 of 3 tries coming from kicks against Workington later in the game.

We started both those games very well and need to work on continuing that better into the second half for a more complete game.

Today is a special day for the club as we celebrate inclusion for all with our Pride day game. Atmospheres on these days are always electric so I hope today is no different and you all get behind the boys and roar them on. The boys are keen to put on a performance for the occasion. Look forward to hearing you all today!

Matt

OPPOSITION GUIDE

ROCHDALE HORNETS

2024 SEASON PREVIEW

THE rebuild at Rochdale continues this year under coach Gary Thornton, who saw his first full season in charge ended prematurely after narrowly missing out on the play-offs.

Having retained only nine members of his squad ahead of 2023, Thornton has increased that marginally to 12 as he and the club look to find the perfect blend of young local players eager to develop their careers, and players with the experience and game knowledge to move them up the table.

The incoming Martyn Ridyard, Gregg McNally and Jordan Andrade certainly add the experience that was lacking at certain points throughout last season.

The club have been making steady progress since Andy Maze and the new board took over ahead of the 2020 season that never was, without ever mounting a serious promotion challenge. That might still be a couple of years off yet, but they will certainly be challenging in the play-offs once again.

ONE TO WATCH

He might be 37 years old, but Martyn Ridyard remains one of the most influential pivots outside of Super League. His stats speak for themselves with almost 3,000 points scored in over 300 games. With a lot of younger players in the squad, Ridyard's extensive experience can only benefit those around him.

CATCHING UP WITH JAKE

It feels amazing to be back home after six long weeks away. June was pretty unpredictable, but we had some awesome moments.

We managed to snag three victories from three games against some really tough teams. These wins have definitely pumped up the boys and given us a bit of momentum in what is a stop-start fixture structure.

One of the highlights was seeing our women's team play their first game. Even though they narrowly lost to Batley in the last minutes, they put up an amazing fight. They showed so much potential and heart, and we can't wait to see how they grow in their next matches. It's an exciting time for the club as we support both our men's and women's teams.

We're also super excited about continuing our partnership with Nuffield Health. This partnership is a huge benefit to our team, giving us access to top-notch facilities and health resources. It's great to have their support in keeping our players in peak condition.

And we can't forget the big news – George Flanagan is now with us on a permanent deal!

With his wealth of experience, he's going to be a fantastic addition to the team. George brings so much to the table, and we're looking forward to seeing the impact he'll make.

All in all, June was a mix of challenges and triumphs, but it's great to be back and ready to keep pushing forward.

Here's to building on our successes and tackling the rest of the season with energy and excitement!

SPONSORS EVENT

We are looking forward to July 26th as we host our invitation only, sponsors event.

This is a catch up evening, where we will catch up with a few players and offer some updates on the squad and new stand.

All invites will shortly be sent out to player and club sponsors.

NUFFIELD HEALTH

A warm welcome to Nuffield Health today who we are stoked to have renewed our partnership with.

Nuffield, like us are a community based outfit and are keen to strengthen links with the club.

We must welcome AJ to hospitality today and thank him for sending his staff to Oldfield Primary School to accompany Jake to deliver a Rugby and health and fitness class.

The facility at Cottingley is fantastic and would urge everyone grab a day pass from the gazebo out the front and check it out!

A THANK YOU!

A big thank you to Brad Foulds who has been giving up his time recently to head down to training to film training sessions.

This is a great tool for the players to use to improve their skill.

A VIEW FROM THE SIDELINE

Club photographer Jonny Tomes-Green provides his insights

Another year, another Pride game. This fixture has often ended up being one of the season highlights for me and expectations are high for Sunday's games.

That is games, plural – incredibly excited to see a Women's team fixture at the Cougar Park for the first time in a good few years!

I was at the away fixture in Batley a few weeks ago and was so impressed with the performance of such a newly formed team, that was a thoroughly entertaining game and hoping for a similar such a fair on Sunday with a good Cougar Park turnout down early doors.

As far as the Men's game is concerned this is an absolutely mouthwatering matchup against Rochdale Hornets. 2nd vs 3rd in League One, Rochdale I'm sure will be looking to get revenge after a game at Crown Oil Arena that was much closer than the scoreline suggested.

The Pride fixture has often seen Cougars lift their levels slightly and put in a performance, including memorably in 2023 despatching Whitehaven in the rain - expect much the same this year, especially on the back of a dominant 1st half against Workington last week – never an easy place to go and play but that was by far the best 40 minutes I have seen from this side in 2024. While the 2nd half was nothing to write home about it definitely shows that there is still the potential for much more from this squad heading into the second half of the year.

Here's to hoping for a great afternoon, two successful home teams and another fantastic party at CP!
